

New College Berkeley Presents

Monastic Wisdom for Everyday Life
Evan Howard

Saturday, January 18, 2014, 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m., Berkeley Covenant Church, 1632 Hopkins,
Fireside Room Cost: $25 No lunch

Interested in giving yourself whole-heartedly to Jesus? In navigating Christian commitment, Christian community, and Christian devotion? In just growing a little deeper in your relationship with God?

In this seminar Evan Howard will introduce insights from the history and theology of Christian monasticism showing their relevance for Christians today. We'll look at ways the wisdom of this tradition can nourish our own lives as individuals and communities

Evan B. Howard, (Ph.D.) is an adjunct professor of philosophy and religion at Colorado Mesa University. He is the author of The Brazos Introduction to Christian Spirituality and Praying the Scriptures.
